

REPUBLICAN SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

Whose right to rule?

Towards a new democracy

Britain's democracy is in crisis. UKIP is blaming the European Union and the Scottish National Party is blaming the union with England. In 2014 there will be an independence referendum in Scotland which might lead to the break up of Britain. What is the future for democracy in England and Scotland? What would a more inclusive, democratic society look like? You are warmly invited to join our discussions.

Saturday July 6

1:00pm - 4:30pm

Room L120

London South Bank University

London Road

London SE1 OAA

(Nearest tube is Elephant and Castle Bakerloo line)

- England and Republicanism - Steve Freeman (RSA)
- Scottish Independence referendum - Allan Armstrong (RCN)
- Agreement of the People – Corinna Lotz (AoP campaign)

Sponsoring organisations

Chartist, Republican Communist Network (Scotland), People's Republic of Southwark, Ateneo Republicano de Villaverde (Spain), Bermondsey Republican Socialists, A World to Win, Occupy Real Democracy Working Group, Socialist Alliance