

monday 21 november
7.30pm lecture theatre 3
the arts tower, sheffield university
open meeting:
Challenging Climate Change

Saturday 3 December is International Climate Protest Day. In Britain demonstrations will be taking place in London and Edinburgh demanding Blair and Bush sign up to an International Treaty with binding targets to reduce greenhouse gas emissions.

Groups in Sheffield have come together to mobilise for the demonstration and share ideas on ways to campaign including establishing a broad based campaign as has been done nationally: Campaign Against Climate Change(CCC) see: www.campaignccc.org

Come along to the meeting and find out what's happening to combat climate change locally, nationally and internationally and ways you can get involved. Bring your ideas! For coach details to the demonstration call Rebecca on: 07870-565-011

Speakers include:

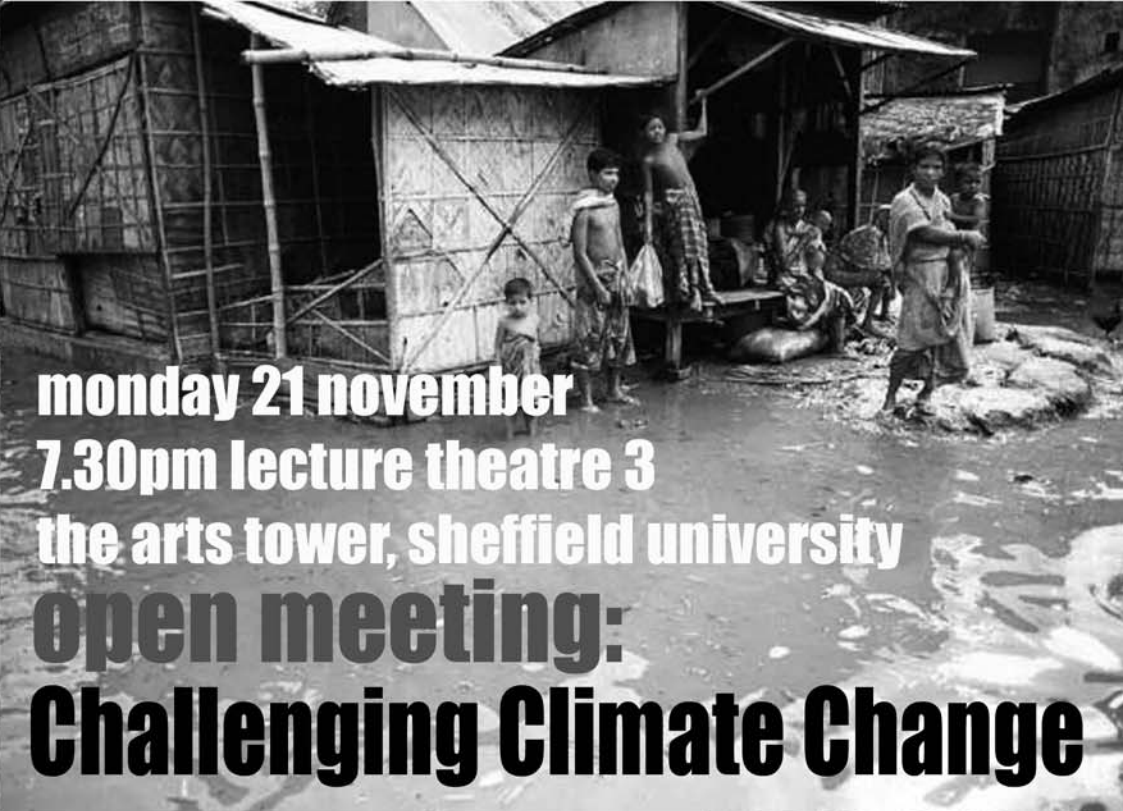

Dr Jillian Creasy (Sheffield Green Councillor)
 Phil Thornhill (national co-ordinator CCC)
 Maxine Bowler (Sheffield RESPECT)

Initiative supported locally by Sheffield-based groups:

people & planet
