

a co-operative approach to enterprise

Lincolnshire cda

THE COOPERATIVE SHOWCASE

at

THE SHOWROOM

On

Thursday 17th November 2011

At

11am—2pm

You are cordially invited to join us at this spectacular event being held on the 17th November at The Showroom to celebrate diverse Cooperative businesses throughout Lincolnshire and to discover what it could mean for you, your customers and your future business.

Benefits you could achieve through cooperation:

- Cooperatives invest in their stakeholders, customers and members
- Cooperatives can raise capital through selling shares
- Cooperatives collaborate, share information and achieve much more
- Cooperatives are eligible to apply for grant funding

The event will give you the opportunity to witness first hand and experience the diversity of co-operative businesses throughout Lincolnshire

Cooperatives showcasing include:

- Chain Bridge Forge (a living museum)
- Gainsborough Adventure Playground (childcare)
- Larcrise (therapeutic services)
- Revival (art and craft)
- Off The Bench (sport activities)
- Louth Interskill (therapeutic activities)

Also showcasing Earthbound Misfits—entertainers with a difference!

Come along and join us for the full event or just drop in at a time convenient to you. Lunch and refreshments will be available from 12 noon onwards.

To assist us with lunch numbers, we ask that you reply to this email should you be staying for lunch, we wouldn't want you to go hungry now would we!

We look forward to seeing you there.

For further information please contact:

Julie Stubbs on: 07969 872804 or jstubbs@lincolnshire.coop

This event is being sponsored by Lincolnshire Cooperative Society.